Partnering Parents

- Parents play a crucial role in supporting our children in a holistic education centred on character development
- Parents and school share the same goal -- to bring out the best in our children.
- Mutual trust and respect are important values to uphold a healthy partnership
- Every Parent a Supportive Parent
- Important for parents to team up with teachers

Team up with Teachers

- Focus on the child and solve problems together as partners.
- When you have concerns, stay calm and seek clarification from the teacher.
- Teachers hope that parents will trust them and believe that they care for the children.
- Showing your appreciation. This will go a long way in cheering teachers and motivating them to do better.
- Children will benefit from the way their parents and teachers model positive interactions to support their school experience.
