Support Reading

- Is essential for academic success in any subject area
- Helps your child to build his/her vocabulary
- Develops awareness of sentence structures
- Develops ideas for good writing
- Read with/to your child or be present to support

Exposure to a variety of texts (any form of genre)

Use other platforms apart from just books : Newspapers, NatGeo Magazines ; News Apps (Little Red Dot/CL/ML)

Supporting your child

- Create a bilingual environment at home. Make a conscious effort to communicate with your child in both English & Mother Tongue languages.
- Increase your child's exposure to EL / MTL by:
 - Encouraging them to read books & newspapers or read with them
 - Watching educational TV shows
 - Allowing your child to tune in to radio stations
 - Revising vocabulary learnt through flashcards or play games available on e-learning portal subscribed through the school
- Manage your child's screen time well

Encourage your child to

- Adopt good habits at home:
 - Setting aside time for school homework and self-revision
 - Sleeping early so that they are alert and attentive for school the next day
- Revise grammar/vocabulary items and strategies (like annotation, looking out for contextual clues, referencing) and comprehension skills taught by the language teachers.
- Revise writing techniques and notes pertaining to writing.
- Speak with clarity and in complete sentences.
- Express their opinions and support their ideas with elaborations and examples in their day-to-day conversations with you
